In the sentencing hearing after a person is convicted of murder, the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt the existence of at least one (1) of the aggravating circumstances alleged. - 17 (d) If the defendant was convicted of murder in a jury trial, the jury
- 18 shall reconvene for the sentencing hearing. If the trial was to the court,
- 19 or the judgment was entered on a guilty plea, a jury shall be
- 20 impaneled for the sentencing hearing unless the defendant waives
- 21 this right. If the defendant waives the right to have a jury
- 22 impaneled for the sentencing hearing, the court alone shall conduct
- 23 the sentencing hearing. The jury or the court may consider all the
- 24 evidence introduced at the trial stage of the proceedings, together with
- 25 new evidence presented at the sentencing hearing. The court shall
- 26 instruct the jury concerning the statutory penalties for murder and any
- 27 other offenses for which the defendant was convicted, the potential for
- 28 consecutive or concurrent sentencing, and the availability of good time
- 29 credit and clemency. The court shall instruct the jury that, in order for
- 30 the jury to recommend to the court that the death penalty or life
- 31 imprisonment without parole should be imposed, the jury must find at
- 32 least one (1) aggravating circumstance beyond a reasonable doubt as
- 33 described in subsection (1) and shall provide a special verdict form for
- 34 each aggravating circumstance alleged. The defendant may present any
- 35 additional evidence relevant to:
- 36 (1) the aggravating circumstances alleged; or
- 37 (2) any of the mitigating circumstances listed in subsection (c).
- 38 (e) For a defendant sentenced after June 30, 2002, except as provided by IC 35-36-9 or IC 35-36-10, if the hearing is by jury, the jury shall recommend to the court whether the death penalty or life imprisonment without parole, or neither, should be imposed. The jury may recommend:

(1) the death penalty; or

(2) life imprisonment without parole;

only if it makes the findings described in subsection (l). If the jury reaches a sentencing recommendation, the court shall sentence the defendant accordingly. After a court pronounces sentence, a representative of the victim's family and friends may present a statement regarding the impact of the crime on family and friends. The impact statement may be submitted in writing or given orally by the representative. The statement shall be given in the presence of the defendant.

(f) If a jury is unable to agree on a sentence recommendation after reasonable deliberations, the court shall discharge the jury and proceed as if the hearing had been to the court alone.

(g) If the hearing is to the court alone, except as provided by IC 35-36-9 or IC 35-36-10, the court shall:

(1) sentence the defendant to death; or

(2) impose a term of life imprisonment without parole;

only if it makes the findings described in subsection (l).

(h) If a court sentences a defendant to death, the court shall order the defendant's execution to be carried out not later than one (1) year and one (1) day after the date the defendant was convicted. The supreme court has exclusive jurisdiction to stay the execution of a death sentence. If the supreme court stays the execution of a death sentence, the supreme court shall order a new date for the defendant's execution.

(i) If a person sentenced to death by a court files a petition for postconviction relief, the court, not later than ninety (90) days after the date the petition is filed, shall set a date to hold a hearing to consider the petition. If a court does not, within the ninety (90) day period, set the date to hold the hearing to consider the petition, the court's failure to set the hearing date is not a basis for additional postconviction relief. The attorney general shall answer the petition for postconviction relief on behalf of the state. At the request of the attorney general, a prosecuting attorney shall assist the attorney general. The court shall enter written findings of fact and conclusions of law concerning the petition not later than ninety (90) days after the date the hearing concludes. However, if the court determines that the petition is without merit, the court may dismiss the petition within ninety (90) days without conducting a hearing under this subsection.

(j) A death sentence is subject to automatic review by the supreme court. The review, which shall be heard under rules adopted by the supreme court, shall be given priority over all other cases. The supreme court's review must take into consideration all claims that the:

(1) conviction or sentence was in violation of the:

(A) Constitution of the State of Indiana; or

(B) Constitution of the United States;

(2) sentencing court was without jurisdiction to impose a sentence; and

(3) sentence:

(A) exceeds the maximum sentence authorized by law; or

(B) is otherwise erroneous.

If the supreme court cannot complete its review by the date set by the sentencing court for the defendant's execution under subsection (h), the supreme court shall stay the execution of the death sentence and set a new date to carry out the defendant's execution.

(k) A person who has been sentenced to death and who has completed state postconviction review proceedings may file a written petition with the supreme court seeking to present new evidence challenging the person's guilt or the appropriateness of the death sentence if the person serves notice on the attorney general. The supreme court shall determine, with or without a hearing, whether the person has presented previously undiscovered evidence that undermines confidence in the conviction or the death sentence. If necessary, the supreme court may remand the case to the trial court for an evidentiary hearing to consider the new evidence and its effect on the person's conviction and death sentence. The supreme court may not make a determination in the person's favor nor make a decision to remand the case to the trial court for an evidentiary hearing without first providing the attorney general with an opportunity to be heard on the matter.

(l) Before a sentence may be imposed under this section, the jury, in a proceeding under subsection (e), or the court, in a proceeding

- 1 under subsection (g), must find that:
- 2 (1) the state has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that at least
- 3 one (1) of the aggravating circumstances listed in subsection (b)
- 4 exists; and
- 5 (2) any mitigating circumstances that exist are outweighed by the
- 6 aggravating circumstance or circumstances.
- 7 SECTION 4. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2008] IC 35-36-10, as added
- 8 by this act, and IC 35-50-2-3 and IC 35-50-2-9, both as amended by
- 9 this act, apply only to crimes committed after June 30, 2008."
- 10 Page 2, line 10, delete "shall" and insert "may".
